What is NJHS? What do we do? National Junior Honor Society of TRMS is a national chapter of an organization that recognizes and encourages academic achievement while developing other important characteristics. NJHS works both with the school and the community to help people in need. During our meetings, we discuss and work on current and upcoming projects. Some of the projects we have conducted include food drives, collecting winter coats for Coats for Colorado, and crafts for various organizations.

What is the basis of selection and expectations of members?

- Applicants must have and maintain a cumulative GPA of at least 3.5 or higher.
